TCU 2015-16 Accounting Recruitment Guidelines

Masters of Accounting (MAc) Recruiting
- MAc resume book for unplaced MAc students will be emailed to recruiters by August 28. You may begin contacting MAc students upon receipt of resume book.
- “Meet the MAcs” networking event for full-time placement is at Blue Mesa on September 30 from 5:30 – 7:00 PM. You may only send 2 representatives from your firm. Please email Jessica Cates to RSVP.
- No MAc recruiting (on or off campus) 10/12-10/16 and 12/10-12/18 – these are finals weeks for the students for 8W1 and 8W2 classes.
- Offers may be extended to MAc students at any point in time during the semester other than no contact weeks.

Junior Recruiting
- Firms may only extend early offers to students who participated in sophomore summer leadership programs. Early offers must be made before spring recruiting beings. Must leave offer open until June 1, 2016.
- Firms may not participate in formal recruiting during Fall semester, but may interact with students enrolled in the PPA seminar in the form of info sessions.
- Recruiting officially begins on “Accounting Firm Night” on January 27, 2016. Email Jessica Cates to reserve your table.
- Firms may have a social event anytime from January 27 through February 19. Please communicate social event plans to Jessica Cates to put on the accounting recruiting calendar.
- On campus interviews will begin February 22, 2016. Please contact the Career Center for your assigned date. No recruiting activities may occur from February 21 through March 31 other than a pre-interview dinner the night before your on-campus interviews.
- Spring Break is March 7-11, 2016 (no recruiting).
- No office visit invitations (formal or informal) can be communicated with the students until Friday, April 1, 2016, which is the last day of on-campus interviews.
- There will be a 2 week “dead period” from April 25 through May 6, 2016. There should be no student contact during this 2 week period (including email).
- All office visits will be conducted after TCU spring commencement. Office visits can begin Monday, May 9, 2016.
- Offers may be made on date of office visit or after the office visit takes place. Students will have until Wednesday, June 1, 2016 to accept or decline an offer.
