

TCU Frog Job Shadow Program

Are you planning on being in the Dallas/Fort Worth area during Fall Break? If so, would you like to participate in a professional development activity that can contribute to your internship or full-time career objectives?

CONSIDER THIS:

TCU Center for Career and Professional Development is excited to host its Frog Job Shadow Program, a job shadowing opportunity for students happening October 14th or October 15th.

DEADLINE TO APPLY | NOON FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27th

Apply in FrogJobs powered by Handshake at careers.tcu.edu. Click on Job Postings and search for “Frog Job Shadow” in job title or “Experiential” as job type. Then select Frog Job Shadow of interest. Please apply to only one opportunity - unless on a different day or time.

POTENTIAL ACTIVITIES THE COMPANY MAY PROVIDE DURING YOUR VISIT INCLUDE:

- Facility tour
- Company overview
- Discussions about career paths
- Informational interviews with professionals and recruiters
- Attend a department meeting or other company event
- Observe company operations
- Experience company culture and work environment
- Meet TCU alumni who work at the organization

“I truly enjoyed the experience and the opportunity to create connections. I had a handful of people give me their email and asked me to send them my resume. Something that would have never happened had I not been a part of the frog job shadow program.”

“From this experience, I will definitely be applying to future FrogShadow events, and highly recommend it to any Horned Frog who is unsure about what they want to do.”

Questions? Email frogjobs@tcu.edu and include “Student FrogJob Shadow Inquiry” in the subject line.

TCU Frog Job Shadow Program FAQs

Why should I participate?

To explore career options prior to graduation. The professionals who have agreed to volunteer their time can provide insight into careers that you have an interest in or may not have considered. Additionally, while this is NOT an interview, the professionals you meet are industry contacts who may be able to assist you later when searching for an internship or job.

Will I get paid?

Job shadow experiences are unpaid as they are provided as a career exploration activity for you. There is no academic credit associated with this program.

Do I need to provide my own transportation in order to participate?

Students are responsible for travel and any non-reimbursable expenses they may incur in choosing to participate the Frog Job Shadow program.

Am I guaranteed to be selected?

TCU Center for Career and Professional Development cannot guarantee pairing of a student to an organization. If not selected, we will be happy to work with you to identify alternate options.

How will I learn if I have been selected to participate?

Students will be notified of their selection by the Career Center after the employers have confirmed their selections. Shortly thereafter, either the Career Center or a company representative will contact you, for those who are accepted, regarding logistical next steps including your contact's name, your arrival/departure time, driving directions and parking instructions.

How are students selected to participate?

Apply to one opportunity that you are interested in by using FrogJobs powered by Handshake. Apply early! The deadline to apply is noon, Friday, September 27th.

How should I prepare for the job shadow day?

Students are required to participate in a mandatory online orientation. You will not be allowed to participate (even if you are selected) if you do not do so. Selected participants will be provided logistical details about orientation closer to the event date.

What are the benefits of participating in Frog Job Shadow Program?

Participating in the Frog Job Shadow Program will provide you an opportunity to learn about different company cultures and career paths. This will also be an invaluable networking opportunity for you to meet the company's professionals and recruiters.
